Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-5, 7-14 and 16-19 are allowed primarily because of the limitations to a poly-aryl methane protecting group for a protected hydroxypolyC₂₋₄alkyleneoxy chain attached to a polymerizable unit capable of free radical polymerization (claim 1). Claims 9 and 14 are likewise limited to the same protecting group and protected chain, and call for free radical polymerization conditions. Claim 2 is specific to styrene-type monomers which are well known to be free-radically polymerizable, and, per the recited formula, requires -O-[C₂₋₄alkylene-O]_n- substituents on the phenyl ring be protected with a poly-aryl methane protecting group.

The Kuchimanchi Declaration filed October 30, 2007 is seen to provide factual support for applicants' position that one skilled in the art would not contemplate the utilization of poly-aryl methane protecting groups under conditions suited to the generation of electron deficient species, based on the teachings of the Avecia reference, due to concern that such groups would not remain attached to provide the requisite protective action under the free radical polymerization conditions taught by the Avecia disclosure. (Declaration, paragraph 6.) This evidence is found probative of the unobviousness of using a poly-aryl methane protecting group to protect the hydroxypolyC₂₋₄alkyleneoxy chain of a monomer to be polymerized by free radical polymerization.

A further search of the relevant art has revealed no prior art that can be used, either singularly or in combination, to render the presently claimed invention anticipated or obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made.

Accordingly, claims 1-5, 7-14 and 16-19 are deemed to define allowable subject matter and passed to issue.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
